Coming up....

Christmas invite cards are now readily available.

Sunday 17th we have the All Age nativity in the morning - great for all ages.

The afternoon Christmas Tea is quieter but still informal - a chance to sit down with friends over food, carols and a Christmas thought or two.

This is suitable for junior school age and upwards.

Note the morning service on Sunday 24th is a simple quiet reflection time (with no special groups for children). On Sunday 31st the morning service will be a simple all age format.

Christmas Specials

17th 10.30am All Age Nativity

17th 4.30pm A Christmas Tea

24th 4.30pm Crib Service

Christmas Day 10am celebration is here, with the Methodist Church joining us

Rhythm & Diet this Christmas!

Over the Christmas period keep in mind your basic spiritual rhythms and diet, e.g. your private prayer, meeting with others, and Bible reading. Build in time to reflect on the Christmas story.

If you wish to include items on the newsheet please contact Wendy Penn on news@countessely.co.uk

Please pray for....

Please pray for Victoria H. and her family as they grieve the sudden loss of her Father.

Give thanks that Liz C. got a new job.

Give thanks that Caleb is regaining his energy and is sleeping better.

Please continue pray for Jim and Glenda in prayer - enduring broken nights and medical equipment problems.

Please keep Carol Metcalfe in your prayers, for her shoulder pain to subside and full healing.

Please continue pray for strength and energy for Margaret, Darren, Lisa and their families and God's grace and comfort.

Serve friends and newcomers by joining the Sunday tea/coffee rota! Helpers typically only have to help once a month. Talk to Karl or Graham to get signed up.
