Pray, Listen, Act - The Simple Way to Take Initiative!

At Countess Free Church we encourage every member to take initiative in their own local areas of home, workplace or recreation. It doesn't have to be complicated! Start by praying - asking Jesus "What Next?". Listen in the following days / weeks, and based on what comes up then decide upon a small simple action.

Pray, Listen, Act!

Prayer Woven through Our Lives

Finding our own personal rhythms of prayer is important to us. 'The Discipline of OFF' is intentionally pausing & making space to commune with God. We need this just as much as we need oxygen!

God didn't create us to go it alone! We encourage everyone to find a prayer partner or form a triplet - one or two who we can share with, be lovingly challenged by, and pray together. We call this 'Sharing the Walk'.

We also have scheduled times for people to come together to pray. 10am every Sunday (for those not already setting up for the service), and monthly on the fourth Saturday at 8am. There is also this Tuesday 5th where Christians across the church will gather here at 7pm, and all are welcome to join.

We encourage every follower of Jesus to work out what it means to weave prayer through their lives, as individuals, with 1 or 2 others, and joining with the wider church.

Soul Question: Do you feel you are letting God down or going great with God?

Key Question: [IN] Do I keep in mind that my body is a temple of the Holy Spirit?

Challenge: Honour God with your body, welcome His presence in you.
