Sunday 30th April

Our morning service at 10.30am will be an all age 'Simply Worship' format - using music, drawing and art to express ourselves before God.

Adding to our Leadership Team

Our leadership team is drawn from members of the church who are willing to serve, demonstrate spiritual leadership, take initiative, and help govern the charity.

We have a clear need for new people to join the team! This can include people willing to grow into the role - you don't have to be an expert from the start! Character and willingness to serve are the starting points. Please be praying for who that might be ... maybe it could be you!

The closing date for nominations is Easter Sunday.

Members Meeting (AGM)

For our members, the meeting on Wednesday 26th April at 7.45pm is our AGM. Here we hope to recognise new people onto the Leadership Team as well as pray & commission other people who minister and lead among us. We will also discuss the transition phase ahead as we look to God's leading for us as a church towards a new minister being called in due course.

Take Initiative - Pray → Listen → Act

For the Easter weekend we encourage you to gather one or a few friends and explain why Easter is crucial to you and your faith as a Christian. You could do this at your home, in a coffee shop, out on a walk ... whatever suits!

For the King's coronation weekend in May we encourage you to celebrate with neighbours locally. Maybe you might do a small event in your street, or join neighbours who are starting to talk about ideas. Help build community and celebrate with your neighbours!

The trick for both of these is to start with Praying - with people in mind. Listen for what God might be saying ... and then Act on those hunches. Pray → Listen → Act
