For an excellent overview of the book of Job, check out this video (11 minutes).

Parent Workshop Evening

On Wednesday 7th June at 7.30pm we are holding a special workshop for parents of young people - looking at an important topic that now affects virtually all teenagers. Using training material from The Naked Truth Project, we want to open up awareness and discussion for parents around the issue of online access, with practical tips on how to frame conversations with our young people.

Due to the sensitive nature of this topic, this workshop is only for parents of young people. plus those in our church family who work with young people through the church youthwork initiatives.
